Mission Statement

Our Mission is to heal the broken hearts of those in our care as we educate, guide and counsel; sharing our life experience, our strength and our hope.

Programs

House of Healing empowers teenage girls to take charge of their lives and become responsible, contributing adults in three specific ways: The Authentic Girls Mentoring Program, Tools for Change and Equine Experience.

Significant Accomplishments

- Continued to provide services - even during uncertain world events
- 90 kids have been helped through our programs
- Founder & CEO, Kathy Boeckman's book, "Journey of the Broken", was published in April with proceeds from all sales going to House of Healing
- 1463 volunteer hours given to help our girls be successful
- Bunkhouse conversion to housing completed
- Widen roads on property to meet fire safety codes completed
- Gate entry to House of Healing on the northwest corner completed

Our girls and the parents share how House of Healing helped them this past year:

"I learned how to talk to people." ...Katie

"I am learning how to overcome my anxiety." ...Xinia

"Enjoyed building an equine obstacle course and learning teamwork." ... Skye

"Communication in our home is better because of the skills you have taught our daughter and us as parents." ...Smith Family

"We had a crisis and I reached out to the staff at HOH for help. I learned my daughter had already contacted one of the staff and they were helping her work through her issues." ... Single Mom Mary
